ONCE POWERFUL TUG CREATES HAVOC ON HER FINAL VOYAGE

VICTORIA (CP)—The tug Salvage King, which spent a quarter of a century saving ships from destruction, wrecked a havoc of her own Friday night as she was being towed on her last voyage to the breaker's yard. The big tug, once the most powerful on the B.C. coast, struck and almost severed one of the main girders of the Johnson street bridge, main link over the upper harbor between Victoria city and Victoria West. After inspection, officials ordered the bridge closed to vehicular traffic. The span will be out of action for about a week. The Salvage King, now a mere hulk with her superstructure removed, was being towed to her graveyard in the inner harbor by the tug Island Comet. Bridge operator Steve Carter said he was not signalled to raise the bridge to let the tow go through.

Details Disclosed At CCF Convention

VANCOUVER (CP)—Indications that the CCF and organized labor in British Columbia are near agreement on united action to oust the Social Credit government were given today before the CCF provincial convention here.

An interim report of the provincial CCF-Canadian Labor Congress joint liaison committee said that during the last 12 months there has been unanimous determination on both sides to co-operate in the ousting of the present government of B.C.

Because of this determination, that the liaison committee had problems in attempting to work convention ends Sunday to call out a satisfactory joint political arrangement had been overcome. CCF members of the legislature and provincial executives of the federation and the CCF, as well as invited members from farm and co-operative organizations.

Purpose of this meeting would be to agree on the highlights, election platform and related election plans.

The recommendations of the committee include:

1. That members of both organizations support work conducted by the political education committee of the federation at the constituency level;

2. That the executive of both organizations send a joint statement to all their units regarding extent to which a common legislative policy exists, agreement on arrangements for an immediate election platform, and arrangements for financing the campaign by mutual agreement.

It also recommends that nominating conventions be held in advance pending acceptance of the proposed plans for co-operation.

Sarnia Businessmen Alarmed Over Strike

SARNIA, Ont. (CP)—Businessmen in this city of more than 42,000 are carefully assessing a strike which may deal the city its worst economic blow in 25 years.

There is no business slump yet as a result of the strike of 1,850 employees of the 17-year-old Crown-owned Polymer Corporation, manufacturers of synthetics but the effects could spread. The walkout started nearly three weeks ago.

Local 16-14 of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union (CLC), representative of the workers who struck March 18, and Canadian Oil Companies Ltd., refineries have said they are prepared to hold out for six months. With the loss of a weekly payroll amounting to about $180,000, businesses are preparing for a sharp cut in the city's purchasing power.

OTHER LAYOFFS They say the strike could result in layoffs at other plants in Sarnia's chemical row. Already 150 men employed by sub-contractors of Imperial Oil Limited have been laid off.

NORTH VANCOUVER (CP)—A young couple and their three small children are homeless following a fire which Friday destroyed their house and possessions on the Capilano Indian Reserve here.

PORT COQUITLAM (CP)—A fund has been started for Alfie Grey, 12, recovering from burns to 80 per cent of his body. Organizers hope to swell the amount to $5,000 by next week to pay for countless skin grafting operations ahead.

Alfie was burned when he touched a 60,000-volt power line Feb. 12 while playing with a friend.

VERNON, B.C. (CP)—Shuswap Okanagan Dairy Industries Co-operative has sent a cheque for $1,000 to the University of B.C. Development Fund. It was the co-operative's second $1,000 payment to the fund.

LAKE COWICHAN, B.C. (CP)—A black bear weighing between 800 and 900 pounds was killed on the highway between here and Mesachie Lake when it was struck by a chipper truck.

NANAIMO (CP)—Wilfred Coul and David M. McKay were sentenced to five years each in penitentiary when they pleaded guilty to three charges of breaking and entering and theft. Coul admitted 103 offences since 1950.

Will Order Ex-Minister Open Books

TORONTO (CP)—Rev. Leslie Millin will be ordered to open his books and account for the fortune he raised for a gold-mining enterprise that flopped, Oswald E. Lennox, Ontario securities commission chairman, said today.

He said the investigation will include looking into the dispersal of $51,530 that Vancouver promoter James Harris McKee turned back to the Freedom Foundation which Mr. Millin directs.

Vancouver police Friday seized records of the gold mining enterprise in which members of the Baptist Church invested more than $305,000.

McKee said to have promoted the scheme to recover gold from the Fraser River sands and use the profit for anti-Communist broadcasts, was reported in Santa Rosa, Calif.

CHECK DISPOSAL Mr. Lennox said: "The crux of the matter is the disposal of this money and of some money that Mr. McKee left in an account here, another $8,000."

"Our duty now is to call on Mr. Millin to prove that this money was properly expended."

The Ontario securities commission and the British Columbia securities commission have been looking into the gold-mining scheme and its method of financing for more than six months.

The Ontario commission's action followed an affidavit sworn Friday by John Schmidt, 46, construction company foreman in suburban New Toronto.

Mr. Schmidt said he loaned $800 to the ill-fated project in 1957 and is still unpaid.

Kelowna Airport Ready For CPA Flights Again

Passenger service between here and Vancouver by Canadian Pacific Air Lines is expected to resume Monday after a shutdown of one month due to a breakup in the Ellison airport's runway.

The runway was so soft at one time that not even the light planes could use it.

On one occasion, a Cessna 195 had to be pulled out of a soft spot by a tractor.

Ralph Hermanson, airport manager, said that "water got in underneath the surface gravel put down a year ago."

He explained that during snow plowing, big banks of snow were built up alongside the runway. When this melted, the water soaked under the gravel and on top of the hardpan, making many soft areas in the runway.

Soft areas have had to be dug out and new gravel fill put in and packed down.

Mr. Hermanson said this was the first time that this situation developed. He blamed it on more snow than usual, higher moisture content of the snow and a rapid spring thaw that overwhelmed the drainage system.

Nfld. Premier Again Lashes Diefenbaker

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Premier Smallwood lashed out at the federal government and Prime Minister Diefenbaker again Friday from the floor of the Newfoundland legislature.

He announced a second lawsuit against Ottawa, again on the grounds of breach of contract. He also withdrew an amendment that would have reduced the cabinet's powers under labor legislation passed last month.

The premier said his government would sue the federal works department and Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation for breach of contract concerning subsidized housing in St. John's.

Newfoundland already has launched a suit against Ottawa in the Exchequer Court of Canada, contending the federal government broke a contract by refusing to send requested RCMP reinforcements during Newfoundland's violence-spattered loggers' strike.

DIEF "INEXCUSABLE" The premier also said Mr. Diefenbaker had made an "inexcusable attempt to interfere in a matter of provincial jurisdiction" in his statements concerning the appointment of a judge to the Newfoundland Supreme Court.

Mr. Smallwood said the CMHC had taken from the St. John's housing authority the possession of 102 rental units, contrary to a 1956 agreement. Attorney-General Curtis said he had issued instructions to have immediate action taken against the CMHC and the public works department.

Liz Still Has Chance In Tight Oscar Race

HOLLYWOOD (CP)—The 1959 race for Oscar awards shapes up as one of the closest in the 21-year history of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

The big interest in the film capital as it prepared today for Monday night's presentations was whether Elizabeth Taylor's chances of an award would be hurt by her involvement in the breakup of the Eddie Fisher-Debbie Reynolds marriage.

Newspaper columnists and movie industry spokesmen tell her chances were as good as, if not better than anyone else's.

The Academy's voting panel, which represents many of the big names in the motion picture business, showed in 1951 and 1957 that it didn't worry much over public opinion.

IGNORER EPISODE Ingrid Bergman was voted the best actress by the panel in 1957 after her much-publicized episode with Italian director-producer Roberto Rossellini.

In 1951, Judy Holliday and Jose Ferrer won Oscars as the best actress and actor after both had been cited by a congressional committee for support of red-tinted causes.

Besides Liz, there are four nominations for this year's best actress Oscar:

Rosalind Russell who starred in Auntie Mame, Susan Hayward in I Want to Live, Shirley Maclaine in Some Came Running and Deborah Kerr in Separate Tables.

Liz' Oscar nomination vehicle was Cat On a Hot Tin Roof.

Self-Imposed Exile Ended By Bergman HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Ingrid Bergman, chic and smiling gracefully, Friday ended a 10-year self-imposed exile from Hollywood.

She left for a tempestuous romance with Italian director Roberto Rossellini. She returned, on the arm of a new husband, to participate in Monday night's Academy Awards ceremony.

The 43-year-old actress' stay will be brief. After presenting an Oscar to the producer of the best movie of 1958 she and Schmidt leave for New York and Paris.

Delaware Insurance Firm To Offer Strike-Pay Deal

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—An executive of an insurance firm formed recently to sell strike-pay insurance said today the firm hopes to be offering policies in 60 to 90 days.

Anthony Freitas, secretary-treasurer of the United Employees Insurance Company, said the firm now is in the process of raising $375,000 in capital to meet Delaware requirements for businesses of its type.

The firm is offering a $20,000, 60-day term policy. Freitas said, "From the inquiries we've been getting it looks like we should be selling policies within three months."

The policies will be offered to unions with the proviso that 80 per cent of the participating union—whether a local or international group—participate.

TOP BENEFITS Freitas paid maximum benefits would be $62.50 a week for 12 weeks, after a two-week waiting period, at a cost of 65 cents a month. Still other policies, at higher premiums, would drop the waiting-period requirement.

Those eligible for the benefits, he said, would be union members on a legal strike—one authorized during the period of a contract by the union officials responsible in this area—or a legal strike that follows expiration of a contract and inability to agree on terms of a new pact.

Freitas said insurance contracts would provide that the policy be in effect for at least six months prior to the expiration of a union-management contract.

Gas Chamber Death Awaits Mrs. Duncan

VENTURA, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, sentenced to die for the hired murder of her son's Canadian-born wife, is in prison today—and a step closer to the gas chamber.

She was pleasant and affable as police drove away with her late Friday, headed for the California Institution for Women at Corona.

Earlier she showed no emotion as Judge Charles F. Blackstock pronounced the death sentence. She remarked later that she had expected it.

Princess Grace Has Operation

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP)—Princess Grace of Monaco underwent a successful appendectomy today at an official of the Monaco royal household announced.

The operation, performed by Dr. James A. Lehman of Philadelphia, lasted 30 minutes, the announcement said.

Princess Grace, 29, was under a total anesthetic. She is expected to remain at the hospital for another week.

HAWAII BOUND

VANCOUVER (CP)—British Columbia's Premier W. A. C. Bennett flew out of here Friday night dressed in a light summer suit en route to Honolulu for a Hawaiian vacation.

Saskatchewan's Premier T. C. Douglas landed at International airport bundled up in a heavy winter coat. Mr. Douglas is here to address the annual CCF convention, B.C. section.

It was a rainy night here. Premier Douglas, helping a frail, old lady passenger from the plane, tramped over wet pavement to the terminal building.

Premier Bennett got the red-carpet treatment. He walked over a red-carpet laid down for all Hawaii-bound passengers.

IWA Leader Asks B.C. To Support Fight In Newfie

VANCOUVER (CP)—H. Landon Ladd, Eastern Canada president of the International Woodworkers of America, returned to his hometown Friday night and asked British Columbians to support the union in its battle with the government of Newfoundland.

Mr. Ladd told a mass meeting attended by 1,000 persons that recent actions of Newfoundland Premier Joseph Smallwood against the IWA were among the most diabolical in the history of Canada.

He said the premier's bill which decertified the union as bargaining agent for employees of the Anglo-Newfoundland Company destroyed "liberties of working men which it had taken a century to achieve."

Mr. Ladd is on a tour of Canada to raise $1,000,000 for the IWA's Newfoundland campaign fund.

Boating Enthusiasts Must Keep The Pastime Safe One

With Kelownians experiencing the first real touch of spring weather the past couple of days, no doubt many people will be putting their boats into the water for the first time this weekend. Easter weekend weather was not conducive to pleasure cruising, but from here on in, the number of boats on Lake Okanagan will steadily increase.

More and more people are boating and craft range from small car-top dinghies to the big powerful cruisers. Last year mooring facilities in front of the yacht club were improved, and now the city plans to go ahead to convert one of the ferry wharfs into a launching ramp for boats—something that has been badly needed in Kelowna.

The department of transport plans to construct a breakwater at Peachland, and this no doubt will give boating enthusiasts in that district a shot-in-the-arm.

New boats, many of them do-it-yourself projects, have been completed in back yards and basements this past winter season.

The Okanagan has been extremely lucky in past seasons. Despite the growing number of people using boats for pleasure and fishing purposes, the district has been fairly free of serious boating accidents. Safety is being practised by our boat owners and operators. However, this is not so in all parts of Canada.

A surprising number of changes seem to be needed in regulations governing minimum life-saving equipment for small power-driven pleasure boats. At a conference called by the department of transport recently, representatives of the provinces, police, and manufacturers of safety equipment and small boat associations lost no time in agreeing on reforms. They were no doubt spurred to action by the toll of fatal boating accidents this past year which included lives of five RCMP officers and led to demands for plainer definition of boat capacity.

The conference recommended abandonment of the standard international lifejacket as required equipment on pleasure boats up to 40 feet in length, and its replacement by a better type. Delegates favored banning life-saving cushions as minimum equipment on pleasure boats of 18 to 26 feet, which should carry safety jackets or vests. Kapok in the cushions has a short life because of rough treatment, it was noted, and should be replaced by a synthetic material. The standard lifejacket was condemned on several grounds—it is too bulky to be worn in a small boat, or stored without danger of damage; it is too dark to be readily seen by rescuers; it will not reliably float an unconscious person face up.

The transport department wants to educate Canadians to wear lifejackets or life-saving vests while in small boats. But the standard equipment is so cumbersome that public resistance to the idea is formidable, even though non-swimmers in particular may be unable to don the garb if plunged into the water. The department itself is therefore developing better safety jackets and vests, hoping to popularize their use.

Meanwhile the provinces are to be asked to prohibit the sale of any such articles not approved by department of transport's Board of Steamship Inspection. It is a wonder that this has not been done long since over the whole range of safety and lifesaving equipment, where the practice of letting the buyer beware seems inexcusable.

No Bloc Politics In Canada

Canadians have always steadfastly rejected "bloc" politics and schemes which seemed to suggest regimentation of the voters in such a way that their support would, perforce, be given to a particular political party. It comes, therefore, as no surprise to learn that Canadians, including union members themselves, don't think much of the idea of the Canadian Labor Congress that organized labor should tie itself to the support of one political party.

This is clear from a recent Canadian Gallup Poll, which asked whether or not Canadians approved of the proposal that Labor should give its support to one political party. The question, of course, referred to the proposal of the Canadian Labor Congress to launch a new left-wing "political movement" to bolster the sagging fortunes of socialism under the derelict CCF party. On a nationwide basis, 67 per cent of all Canadians expressed their disapproval of the proposal. Only 28 per cent approved, while 5 per cent held no opinion. Among labor union households, the idea of a labor-sponsored political party of the left was also heartily disapproved. 61 per cent of all union households in the country expressed opposition to the scheme. Only 31 per cent were in favor. 8 per cent held no opinion.

It is significant, too, that only about one Canadian in four had even heard of the scheme. The Poll's findings suggest that the "political movement" launched by the Canadian Labor Congress at its annual convention in Winnipeg nearly a year ago has very little likelihood of ever getting off the ground.

Khrushchev Made A Point Of Studying Agriculture

In this story by Associated Press news analyst William L. Ryan, the writer draws on his long experience in Moscow to assess from an American view Soviet Premier Khrushchev's background.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

Stubby Nikita Khrushchev planted himself in the middle of a field, surrounded by awed farmers and communist functionaries. A brisk breeze fanned to motion the tiny wisps of white hair on his nearly bald head.

"Here," exclaimed Khrushchev, pointing dramatically to the corn, "is the complete sausage on the handle! Here is beefsteak; here is bacon. How will these plants look in a month and a half, when harvest comes? The cobs will be half a yard long. Now you understand why I am so enthusiastic about corn."

This was the new Khrushchev of recent vintage—Khrushchev the boss. He spoke about the pressing need for animal fodder. Who would dare remind him that his own experimenting in the past had gravely endangered the U.S.S.R.'s livestock population? Khrushchev owed much of his career to his interest in agriculture and his knowledge of the farmer. Boss at last, he could talk confidently about his big ideas. It hadn't been so in the past. His first big idea about farming, in fact, almost cost him his head.

As a member of Stalin's inner politburo and chief of the Ukraine, Khrushchev conceived the idea of revolutionizing collective farming as a step toward the goal of communism.

PEASANTS RESIST

In general charge of Soviet agriculture was Andrei Andreyevich Andreyev, old, weak, inefficient, always tottering on the edge of disaster. For the aggressive Khrushchev, Andreyev was a pushover.

Farms, said Khrushchev, would be transformed into agricultural factories. Farmers would become farm-industry workers. Small collectives would be merged on a vast scale into huge farm factories.

Khrushchev's real goal, inspired by Stalin, was to abolish all private plots, the kitchen gardens by which the peasants set great store. He would build instead communal agrogorods—farm cities.

He reckoned without the peasants. There was grumbling, resentment, even resistance. He pushed through thousands of amalgamations, but suddenly Stalin slapped him down and halted the program.

The former miner from Kursk listened in brooding silence at the 20th Communist congress in October, 1952. Georgi Malenkov, then Stalin's right hand man, referred to Khrushchev as one of "our individual executive workers" who erred in trying to force farm consolidation.

"They tried," thundered Malenkov, "to bring about a forced change in the mass resettlement of villages in large collective settlements, to demolish old collective farm installations and homes of collective farmers, to create instead agrogorods."

STALIN'S DEATH

But Khrushchev had bounce. Despite this awesome blast, he emerged from the 1952 congress a member of the expanded presidium that supplanted the politburo, and a member of an expanded party secretariat. He lost no time in nullifying down his immediate conclusion that there were doctor-plotters in the Soviet Union.

Khrushchev would revert to 1952 and blame Malenkov for the sorry state of Soviet agriculture. Then, he would succeed in having Malenkov thrown out of the hierarchy.

To hear Khrushchev tell it, he had nothing to do with the whole business until he stepped in with the cure.

Shortly after the 1952 congress, the lives of all politburo members were in grave danger.

Stalin, to quote a diplomat of the day, had "reached for the bottle again." A new blood purge was in the making. Stalin's assistants fabricated a fantastic story about a plot of doctors, most of them Jewish, to poison Stalin and other leading figures.

Luckily for the politburo—some say it was more than coincidence—Stalin died in March, 1953.

At that moment, Khrushchev seemed only an also-ran in the power sweepstakes, scarcely noticed in the fearful obsequies for the dead dictator. But Stalin's body was not cold before the plotting began.

Malenkov took both Stalin jobs: Premier and first party secretary, in control of both party and government. Within two weeks, Khrushchev nudged Malenkov from the party job.

Those were nervous days. The new leadership, called itself "collective," felt impelled to promise abundance to the long-suffering public. It apparently felt the need of popular support, something unheard of in Stalin's day.

The whole fantastic story of the doctors' plot was reversed. But not for three years did the Soviet public learn why.

At the 1956 congress, Khrushchev gave out the terrifying story. Not a man on the politburo had been safe, he recalled, after the obscure Dr. Timashuk unfolded her fantastic tale of the plot.

"Let us recall the affair of the doctor-plotters," said Khrushchev. "Actually there was no affair outside the declaration of the woman Doctor Timashuk who was influenced or ordered by someone—after all she was an official collaborator of the organs of state security—to write Stalin a letter in which she declared that doctors were applying supposedly improper methods of medical treatment."

"Such a letter was enough for Stalin to reach the immediate conclusion that there were doctor-plotters in the Soviet Union. Stalin personally called the investigating judge and gave him instructions, advising him which investigative methods should be used. These methods were simple: Beat, beat and once again beat."

So much for the man who was, for so many years, Nikita Khrushchev's "great general leader and teacher." Khrushchev's own methods were to a slight release due to a rather powerful cigar.

By-Election Result Shocks Conservatives In Britain

By M. McINTYRE HOOD
Special London (Eng.) Correspondent

For The Daily Courier

LONDON—Coming on the day after the completion of Prime Minister Macmillan's triumphal tour of the capitals of Russia,

France, Germany and the United States, the result of the by-election in South-West Norfolk came as a rude shock to the Conservatives.

It has overnight cooled their ardor for a spring general election.

The Labor candidate retained the seat for his party by a majority of 1354, an increase of 1161 over the Socialist majority in the 1955 general election. The Conservatives had been confident of winning this seat. Had they won it, on top of the victory in Harrow East, the call for an election in May or June would have been well-nigh irresistible.

The South-West Norfolk result shows that the single swallow of the Harrow success does not make a Conservative summer.

It was noticeable that when Mr. Macmillan appeared in the House of Commons on his return from his visit to the United States and Canada, he was welcomed by members of all parties. There was not a single critical note in the discussion which followed his brief statement on what had been accomplished.

This was at variance, however, with a bitter attack made on Mr. Macmillan by Aneurin Bevan in Washington. Mr. Bevan's remarks, made at a Socialist rally in Manchester, were out of tune with public thinking, and with the line adopted by his own party leader, Mr. Macmillan and the Conservatives.

"I know Mr. Macmillan," he said. "He is a man who deals in charades. He is a poseur. I have watched him carefully for years. Behind that Edwardian countenance there is nothing."

What fanned the public mind about Mr. Bevan's attack was that it was made in the presence of Mr. Suslov, leader of a Russian delegation which has been visiting Britain at the invitation of a group of Socialist members. The general view is that the attack was undelivered, and that Mr. Bevan had slipped again.

SAVINGS LEAP AHEAD

A reflection of the sound state of the British economy is seen in the steady increase in savings being invested in the government's premium and defence bonds. In the last week reported, payments for these bonds were £236,000,000, with only £10,000,000 withdrawn, a net gain of £226,000,000 in one week. This year to date there has been a net saving of £261,000,000. This is in sharp contrast to the record of 1958, when in the same period, withdrawals of money invested in these bonds exceeded new subscriptions by £10,500,000.

Abandonments have maintained their reputation for thrift in their purchases of these savings bonds.

OTTAWA REPORT

Top-Playing Posts Open

By PATRICK NICHOLSON

There are more than forty important jobs in the service of our country which could be filled this month. All are in effect in the gift of the Prime Minister of the day. The vacancies arise through the death or retirement or expiration of the appointment of the previous holder, nearly all of whom were supporters of the Liberal party and appointed by the previous government.

About half of these top jobs are full-time employment, with remuneration ranging from $22,500 a year until age 75 years down to $12,500 a year until age 65.

There are other jobs which do not call for whole-time attention, and carry a smaller emolument. And there are yet others which are honorary, taking up very little time, and the holders are reimbursed their out-of-pocket expenses for travelling and other costs in connection with the appointment.

Maritime lawyers will all be interested in the vacancy on the Supreme Court of Canada, which will be caused when Mr. Justice I. C. Rand reaches his 75th birthday on 27th day of this month. His successor, who must be a Maritime, will be paid $22,500 until he too reaches that retirement age.

TOP CIVIL SERVICE POST

The top-ranking public service vacancy is the chairmanship of the Civil Service Commission. This appointment is for ten years, and the present salary is $21,000 a year, representing more than double what it was only seven years ago but it is unlikely to be increased to $42,000 in the next seven years.

Canada needs a Queen's Printer, to take charge of the Public Printing Office. This post, offering at present $18,000 a year, carries the status of a deputy minister, and hence like all such positions is strictly a political appointment carrying the liability or indeed the certainty of dismissal if the present government should be defeated.

One of the most interesting and important vacancies is the chairmanship of the Canadian section of the International Joint Commission, which was set up fifty years ago to settle questions arising along our boundary with the United States. This job pays $17,500 a year, and obviously calls for tact and toughness in dealing with our big neighbor.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

ICE FROLIC

Editor, Kelowna Daily Courier, Kelowna, B.C.

Dear Sir: It was my good fortune in being able to take in the Vernon Silver Blades Ice Revue held recently.

After seeing this wonderful show, I could not let this opportunity pass without saying a little about Miss Lou Orwell, your city's shining star of ice skating who was by far the most outstanding performer at this ice show. This beautiful young lady was like a ballerina on blades with her skating magic and with this combination of beauty and skillful artistry, she will go far in the world of ice skating in which she excels.

Kelowna must be just as proud of Miss Lou Orwell as Penticton is of Miss Rose Bilyk, as Lou not only has won many first place awards but also has captivated countless people in the 8th Annual Silver Blades Ice Revue held in Vernon.

Many thanks and best wishes to you Lou Orwell for your achievements and dazzling displays on the silver blades as many people will be looking forward with eager anticipation to seeing you perform in future skating shows all through the valley and especially at the coming ice show in Kelowna as you continue to delight audiences with your breathtaking beauty, charm and artistry.

Yours truly, MRS. C. S. VERNON, B.C.

Lesser posts needing to be filled are the chairmanship of the Tariff Board ($16,900 a year); two vice-chairmanships on the tariff board ($14,500 a year each); the chairmanship of the Dominion Coal Board ($14,500 a year); a commissionership studying the previous holder, nearly all of whom were supporters of the Liberal party and appointed by the previous government.

POLITICAL VACANCIES

A new secretary of state to handle the policy and administration of our external affairs department was necessitated by the lamented death of Dr. Sidney Smith. Although that very exacting job, calling for very special qualifications, offers only $17,000 a year, the Prime Minister was quickly made aware of the candidature of two prompt applicants, while every newspaper pundit and armchair quarterback in Ottawa loudly tipped various possible or impossible politicians and civil servants, some even tipping the wrong person through a confusion of names such as once led a recent prime minister into appointing the wrong outsider to his cabinet.

Other political posts in the immediate gift of the Prime Minister are vacancies in the Senate: two for Nova Scotians, one for a New Brunswicker and three for Quebecers. These are part time posts, the holder of each of which is paid $10,000 a year for life.

Other vacancies, less exacting and proportionately less remunerated, include directorships of the Bank of Canada, and Canadian Overseas Telecommunications Corporation; membership of the atomic energy control board, the Canada Council, the Defence Research Board, the CMHC Board; the National Research Council, and the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority. The Canadian Commercial Corporation needs a president. And the National Battlefields Commission has a chairman who was appointed 20 years ago and a member who was appointed 21 years ago—both "during pleasure"—which is a situation perhaps calling for active study.

All these posts can be filled in practice by a word from the Prime Minister of the day—some have been carried over from the previous government. It is a fair guess that a substantial contribution to the letter and telephone calls received by any Prime Minister relate to applications and recommendations for important posts in the service of the nation, such as some of those listed above.

Bank Of Canada Rate Inches Up

OTTAWA (CPI)—The Bank of Canada's interest rate edged up again this week to a record 4.58 per cent, up from 4.55 per cent a week ago and the third consecutive weekly increase.

The rate is set at one-quarter of one per cent above the average yield of 91-day treasury bills, which this week rose to 4.33 per cent from last week's 4.30 and 4.22 two weeks ago.

Average price of the $135,000, 600 issue, matured July 3, was $98.931.

The bank rate of 4.58 per cent compares with the all-time low of 1.12 set last Aug. 2.

Kelowna District Construction Lags Behind 1958 Figures

Construction for the Kelowna district continues to lag behind that of a year ago—and the comparison would be much more drastic, if it were not for Glenmore.

Of the three segments of the district—the city of Kelowna, the municipality of Glenmore, and the Kelowna regulated area—only Glenmore is ahead of the figures for building values for one year ago. Kelowna is down over $100,000, and so is the regulated area.

Snow on the ground in January and February and generally colder weather is given as partly to blame for the decline. Building showed a marked brightening in March, but again, Glenmore was the only section to exceed the figures for March of a year ago.

RESIDENTIAL PERMITS
Kelowna's total last month, as given to city council by the building inspector, A. E. Clark, came to $250,646. Of this total, $168,250 went for six residential permits; $41,500 for two permits for new commercial buildings, and $13,946 for one permit for addition and alteration to a public building.

Year	March	Year to End of March
1959	$250,646.00	$388,152.00
1958	311,166.00	508,992.25
1957	94,407.00	136,782.00
1956	286,555.00	412,355.00
1955	81,185.00	163,770.00
1954	115,440.00	165,920.00
1953	43,605.00	81,935.00
1952	122,420.00	185,800.00
1951	604,187.82	674,962.82
1949	103,935.00	137,413.00
1948	360,946.00	588,595.00

LOTS OF SNOW IN THEM THAR HILLS

VERNON — Plenty of snow in the hills is welcome news for the farmers and orchardists.

At the Aberdeen Lake course, snow surveyor W. K. Dobson, found almost double the amount of snow with twice the water content of April 1, 1958.

There are 86 inches of snow on Silver Star, with a water content of 30 inches. This is the first year readings are being taken on the "Star," so comparisons are not available.

Mr. Dobson, who has already made three snow surveys this spring, will make one more, on May 1.

VICTORIA (CP) J. Stewart Smith, British Columbia superintendent of brokers, said Friday night police have seized records of the Fraser River gold-mining venture of James Harris McKee and have discovered that he now is living in Santa Rosa, Calif.

Police and securities officials have been seeking McKee to discover what has happened to more than $305,000 invested in the scheme by Ontario and B.C. Baptists.

Mr. Smith said on his return from Vancouver that methods used to finance the enterprises were the "strangest" he had seen since joining the B.C. securities

Sod-Turning Ceremonies For New Church Sunday

While actual construction is several weeks off, the turning of the sod for the new Catholic church in Kelowna will take place Sunday, at 2 p.m.

The sod-turning has been advanced so that Rt. Rev. W. B. McKenzie, D.P., may officiate. The venerable Kelowna parish priest is leaving next week on a year's leave of absence.

The new administrator of the Immaculate Conception parish, Very Rev. R. D. Anderson, who is charged with directing the construction of the church, said it was the wish of the bishop of Nelson that Msgr. McKenzie turn the sod.

Msgr. McKenzie had been planning for a church for nearly all the 27 years he served as parish priest here, but now, because of illness, he will not be able to see the centennial for the parish.

100 YEARS OLD

The Immaculate Conception parish here had its beginning in 1859 when Father Charles Pandosy founded a mission (in the present Mission Creek district), which became the first permanent white settlement in the Okanagan.

Site of the original mission was restored last year as a B.C. centennial project and is now considered as an unofficial historic site.

The sod-turning ceremony will take place three lots west of the present Catholic church, which has been too small for many years, even though an extension was put on it over 20 years ago.

Some idea of the growth of the parish was given at a public gathering in his honor this week, when Msgr. McKenzie recounted that upon his arrival here in 1931 there were 123 families. Now there are over 550 families.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, inside the church, will follow the turning of the sod.

Foresters' Official At Winfield Sunday

WINFIELD—Ron Page, district manager of the Independent Order of Foresters for the Okanagan Valley, will be at the Winfield Memorial Hall at 2 p.m. Sunday.

He will show films and give a talk on the Independent Order of Foresters, it was learned at a meeting of Court 203, Winfield, held recently. Everyone is welcome to attend.

POLICE COURT

A fine of $75 and costs was imposed on Michaly Fodor for driving while his licence was under suspension.

Michael Dapavo paid a fine of $25 and costs for speeding in a 50-mile zone.

Convicted of vagrancy, Joseph Planondon was fined $25 and costs in city court.

Adam Adamson, after pleading guilty to being intoxicated in a public place, was fined $15 and costs, with an alternative of three days in prison.

A total of $100 and costs was imposed on Walter Struthers 22, of Falkland, after he pleaded guilty to charges of driving while not in possession of a valid licence and of driving without due care and attention. He was fined $25 and $75 respectively on the two charges.

Pleading guilty to being intoxicated off a reserve, William Wilson was fined $15 and costs.

In city court, Albert Stratton, charged with being intoxicated in a public place, was fined $15 and costs.

A similar intoxication charge resulted in the magistrate fining Charles Rigueudelle $15 and costs.

Magistrate Donald White imposed the mandatory penalty of 14 days imprisonment on Melvin Morrow after he was convicted of impaired driving for the second time.

Thomas Bowers was sentenced to three months imprisonment in city court for obtaining goods with a worthless cheque.

In juvenile court, a 15-year-old girl pleaded guilty to driving without a valid licence and was fined $15 and costs.

Radar Traps Result In More Fines

The wheels of justice continue to grind in police court these days, meting out justice to errant drivers caught in district radar traps.

With local highway patrol officers in danger of contracting writer's cramp, the list of those processed through court continues to swell daily.

Most of those fixed with the "evil eye" were charged and convicted of speeding in a 30 mile-per-hour zone. The latest batch includes:

William Haskett, Andrew Yagiw, David Bloxham, Arthur Wormull, Maurice Chase, Grant Fumerton, Russell Ensign, Joseph Huseh, Ronald Haecote, Ernest Bornaes, Allison Turt, William Jones, Elsie Fritz, David Allan and Leslie Wilson, all fined $15, plus costs.

Also fined were: Merl Myers, $25 and costs; Ray Hunter, $20 and costs; Gordon Lonne, $20 and costs; William Angle, $20 and costs; James Bromley-Browne, $20 and costs; Herbert Hancet, $20 and costs.

A juvenile boy was also fined $15 and costs for speeding in a 30-mile zone and an additional $20 and costs for driving without a valid driver's licence.

Fines of $15 each, plus court costs, were imposed on Allan Schultz and Byron Gordon for exceeding the limit in a 15-mile an hour school zone.

The variations in the amounts of fines is due to some motorists being "clocked" at greater speeds than others.

Wedding Accented By Church Choir

St. Paul's United Church was the scene of a beautiful Easter wedding when Valerie Anita Louise Van Ackeren became the bride of Donald James Ritchie in a spring flower setting.

Double ring rites were performed for the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Van Ackeren, and the only son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ritchie of Vancouver by Rev. D. M. Perley and Rev. R. S. Leitch.

Entering the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage, the radiant bride was gowning in a classic full length gown of heavy delustered satin. Three quarter length sleeves and high neckline styled the fitted bodice, with deep v in back. A full paneled skirt with semi-train met the Empire waist, with a trailing sculptured satin rose imposed upon the front panel.

A scalloped lace cap encrusted with tiny pearls caught the bride's filmy chapel veil, and she carried an arrangement of two white orchids and yellow roses.

For a preview of spring and for resort travel, we suggest this two-piece costume with a three-piece look about it. The creamy white blouse top has a satin sleeve. It is attached to the dark beige skirt of textured silk. The skirt has a self-banded waist with a bow at the centre front. The boxy jacket has a lining of cream colored silk. The skirt has a few gathers from the waist and a banded centre fold. The color scheme of cream-white beige and creamy white is especially enticing.

Charming Ceremony At Rutland For Jennie Lee And Neil Karran

Baskets of spring flowers and arrangements of pussy willows and forsythia created a lovely setting for the early spring rites. Accompanied by Mrs. Kelly uniting, Jennie Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lee, and Neil Frederick Karran, eldest son of F. K. Karran of Bankhead, at Rutland United Church. Rev. J. A. B. Adams officiated at the afternoon ceremony.

Mr. Lee gave his daughter in marriage. Her strapless white lace and net ballerina gown was bouffant over skirt, featuring a sweetheart neckline and small bolero style jacket. Dainty orange blossoms in a circlet secured the delicate fingertip bridal veil which had been worn by the bride's aunt. Elbow length gloves completed her ensemble. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses and lily of the valley.

Maid of honor Miss Marilyn Campbell and bridesmaid Miss Patricia Lee, sister of the bride, wore ballerina gowns of mauve lace and yellow net respectively. They carried colonial bouquets, peach for the former, and pink for the latter, and their head-dresses were fashioned of white flowers.

Norman Karran acted as groomsmen for his brother, and Jack Jansen ushered the guests. Accompanied by Mrs. Kelly uniting, Jennie Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lee, and Neil Frederick Karran, eldest son of F. K. Karran of Bankhead, at Rutland United Church. Rev. J. A. B. Adams officiated at the afternoon ceremony.

A wedding supper for 50 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents at Reid's Corner. J. A. Johnson proposed the bride to which the groom gave response. White tapers flanked the three-tiered wedding cake nestling in pink tulle which centred the bride's table. Servitors were the Misses Dorothy Lee, Anne Gustafson, Nancy Ito and Wendy Curtis.

Mrs. Lee chose a lace model in rosewood shade for her daughter's wedding, with which she wore navy accessories.

For a short wedding journey by motor, the bride donned a spring suit of grey flecked with black, contrasted by green hat and scarf, and other accessories of black. The newlyweds will reside in Kelowna.

Former Ice Queen Waits On Husband

By EDWARD KITCH

CHICAGO (AP)—Barbara Ann Scott, Canada's former Olympic figure skating champion who gave up stardom as queen of the ice shows to become a housewife, is happy with her choice.

A lot of wives won't believe this, but Barbara Ann—Mrs. Tom V. King—serves her husband his breakfast in bed every morning. To her, a happy home life is a career.

"I don't miss the glamor," she said. "To me it was hard work. You never could plan your day. I enjoyed rehearsals, but when the stadium was empty after a show, it was the loneliest feeling in the world."

MARRIED PRESS AGENT

Barbara Ann married her press agent Sept. 17, 1955, after four years with Arthur Wirtz' Hollywood Ice Review.

They live in a 14th floor apartment with a miniature French poodle named Prince, a turtle named Bertie, and a parakeet called Leroy.

Being a housewife seems a simple thing to most folks, but to Barbara Ann it's a dream come true.

"I used to carry along an extra wardrobe trunk filled with pots and pans and photographs of friends and loved ones just to make a hotel room seem like home," she said.

JUST A MISFIT

"I'd cook for myself and bake muffins and after the show would bring in friends. I don't drink or smoke or go to night clubs, so I just was a misfit."

Husband Tom, now an advertising executive, tried to discourage her from giving up a promising theatrical career but he is the first to encourage her to be an all-out housewife.

"I believe wives should look after their husbands or else don't get married," she said.

"I do all his personal laundry by hand. Keep his dresser drawers tidy. I don't think a husband should have to worry about picking up his own clothes or shining his razor after he uses it."

Barbara Ann won the world championship in Stockholm in 1947 and the European title in Davos, Switzerland, the same year. The next year she defended both titles successfully and won the Olympic title at St. Mortiz.

"On Friday the 13th, no less," she said.

PRO CAREER

Then she turned pro and starred in a four-week engagement at the Roxy Theatre in New York City. She toured Canada coast to coast during the 1949-1950 season, then appeared in England, be-during the summers of 1950 and 1951.

When Sonja Henie left the waltz production, Barbara Ann was invited to replace her childhood idol.

"It was the first time I ever heard about my husband," she said. "I especially dislike publicity agents because they made you do all sort of silly things. They were usually fat and smoked dirty cigars."

"I thought, 'There go my pig-tails and the slacks I like to wear when off the ice.' But it was a very pleasant surprise to get off the plane in Chicago and meet Tom."

NO GLAMOR GIRL

"I'm not a glamor girl. I just want to be me. It was utter nonsense to pretend you're most press agents try to do. But Tom was perfectly wonderful and didn't ask me to do ridiculous things."

Barbara Ann's retirement from the ice is definite, she says. But her present-day activities are as sparkling as her platinum blonde hair.

She now plays golf, appears in television commercials and sews her own clothes. She is opening a Barbara Ann Scott beauty salon in suburban Glenview, Ill., this June. Last summer she directed the Edgewater Beach Playhouse. The successful season starred such personalities as Melvyn Douglas, Ann Sheridan and Burgess Meredith in five productions over 11 weeks.

But to Barbara Ann it gets nicer by the minute as Mrs. Tom King.

"And," says Tom, "I'll say this—in the 3½ years we've been married I've never known her to be cross or say a negative thing about anyone. And I think that is very unusual."

WCTU Convention Being Held Here Next Wednesday

A one-day convention of the Okanagan district Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held Wednesday, April 8, at the United Church Hall.

Business session will commence at 9:30 a.m. to be followed by a banquet at half past twelve.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. W. S. Watson of Vancouver, president of the provincial union. The evening meeting will be held at the People's Mission, beginning at 7:30, when films will be shown.

Private School Interviews Here

Parents wishing to enroll their daughters for the fall term at Vancouver's York House School have the opportunity of a personal interview with the administrative head from next week.

Mrs. Clare Brown Harris will be available by appointment during her two-day stay Tuesday and Wednesday, April 7 and 8.

Advantages of the private school include a more individual form of teaching than is possible in larger schools. Curriculum at York House corresponds with that of the B.C. department of education, and classes are available to pupils of kindergarten age up to grade 12.

MRS. CLARE HARRIS

Main purpose of the establishment is to provide academic training, but also to install a sense of leadership in the pupils, to encourage intelligent interest in community affairs, and to help each girl develop her own potential as an individual.

Set in extraordinary attractive surroundings, the coast school has been in existence for 27 years. A staff of 23 teachers is maintained, and subjects range from French beginning in grade one, to folk dancing, making of puppets, and good manners.

Private school education at Vancouver's St. Clare School, and Branksome Hall in Toronto, with graduation from UBC in 1935, and MA at Columbia University have fitted Mrs. Harris admirably for her position. In addition she was assistant to Miss Mary Bollart, dean of women at UBC, later becoming secretary of the Students' Christian Movement in Toronto, and has worked with the student division of the YWCA. She later married and spent some years in the United States before returning to take up her present post.

Since its inception York House has taken both boarders and day pupils, until last year when it was decided to experiment in operating exclusively as a day school. Next year, however, boarders will be back, and the school will draw its students from all parts of Western Canada.

The school is non-denominational, and prayers of this nature are conducted every morning.

Groom's Father Will Officiate At May Wedding

The betrothal is made known today by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Knopf, of their second daughter, Vera Nora, to Hans Epp, only son of Rev. and Mrs. Herman Epp.

The wedding will take place Saturday, May 16, in Christ Lutheran Church, with the father of the groom officiating.

The fastidious woman invests in fine handbags, which she keeps immaculate inside and out. If she uses a travel handbag she selects one that, while it is roomy, is not too unwieldy to be carried with outfits other than her en route costume.

have done themselves proud this year, as you can see from this picture. The capacious travel bag is in a pale bone shade of grained, textured calf. The outside pocket holds a passport case. The fittings are of California saddle leather in brilliant scarlet touched with gold tooling.

PTA Leader Urges School Sex Classes

VANCOUVER (CP)—The British Columbia Parent-Teacher Federation convention has been told that sex education should be returned to high schools.

Mrs. W. V. McDonald, the federation's immediate past president, told the 600 delegates at nearby Burnaby that "PTAs must work for public support of such a program."

"Students are taught of other parts of the human body system, why not also about the anatomy and physiology of the reproductive system?" she said.

Mrs. McDonald's statements were in answer to a 45-minute address given earlier by Education Minister Leslie Peterson.

Mr. Peterson told the convention that one of the chief reasons sex education classes aren't given is because of the difficulty in obtaining teachers "with experience, tact, and will to teach it."

OTHER SUBJECTS

Mr. Peterson spoke on other subjects as well in his address to the convention.

On school economics, he said he could not understand how excluding school financing costs from the Chant royal commission's terms of reference would negate the work of the commission. The BCPTF made the charge in its brief to the commission in February.

"On the contrary," said the minister. "It is this inclusion of this subject which would be a greater hindrance because then the commission would not only be faced with determining necessary education, but would have to recommend who was going to pay the bill."

In other business at the convention the federation voted to ask the provincial government to allow non-property holders to seek re-election as school trustees.

STAN MISSES THIS ONE BY INCHES

Palmer Overtakes Stan In Masters Tournament

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Arnold Palmer has no fear of the superstition that Masters golf champions never repeat.

"Of course, I'm conscious of this tradition—they don't let me forget it," he said Friday. "But I don't let it concern me. I'm just concentrating on winning the tournament."

The defending titleholder and 1958 leading money winner was halfway there today with a 36-hole score of 141, one of two cards under Augusta National's par.

The early pace-setter, Stan Leonard of Vancouver, fell to second place with 143. He fired a 74 Friday to go with his 69 in the first round. Fifteen players were bunched at 144 and 145. Par is 72 on the rugged 6,980-yard Augusta course.

Three players, including British Open champion Peter Thomson were at 144. At 147 were United States Open champion Tommy Bolt, Dow Finsterwald, leading money-winner Art Wall, Sam Snead, Ben Hogan, Gene Littler and Ted Kroll.

NEEDED 149

The qualifying point for the final 36 holes was 149. There were some distinguished misses. Ken Venturi, pre-tournament favorite, had 151. Three-time winner Jimmy Demaret had 162. Lloyd Mangrum and former champion Claude Harmon were other casualties at 151.

Palmer, from Latrobe, Pa., shot to the front by adding a 67 to his 74 on Friday. He gave every impression that he has the strength and the attitude to stay there.

"I may feel a bit freer out there than I did a year ago," he said. "But I never take this course or tournament for granted. I don't relax. I play scared."

Palmer has been a consistent winner since he hit the tough par four. He has won 12 tournaments and last year his earnings totaled $42,607.50.

SEVEN PROS

Behind Leonard at 144 were seven seasoned professionals, including two prime foreign threats.

Dechene Hero In Vancouver

SEATTLE (CP) — If the first game of the Vancouver-Seattle best-of-seven Western Hockey League final was any indication of what's to come, the Coast Division series should be an exciting one.

Vancouver took it 2-0 to give the Totems their second whitewash of the season.

In the third period after Canucks had scored their second unanswered goal, some of the 3,419 fans found the pressure too much and littered the ice with debris in a noisy demonstration that held up the game for 10 minutes.

When order was restored Totems applied the screws, but failed to save themselves from going down to their second shut-out defeat of the season. Winnipeg Warriors of the Prairie Division held them scoreless in early January.

SIX PENALTIES

Referee Scotty Morrison tried to simmer down the heated up teams by handing out six minor penalties to each of the teams in the first two periods. Totems were the only offenders in the third period and picked up their seventh penalty of the night.

Canuck goalie Lucien Dechene was the night's hero. He had to turn back eight more shots than the 15 Vancouver fired at Roy Bentley but kept the attacking Totems at bay.

Flin Flon And Winnipeg Meet Junior Semis

EDMONTON (CP) — Flin Flon Bombers and Winnipeg Braves two junior power squads, clash next week to determine the Western Canada entry in the Memorial Cup hockey final.

Flin Flon went into the Western final Friday night by whipping Edmonton Oil Kings 11-6. The win gave Bombers a four-game sweep in a best-of-seven series. Braves took five games to defeat Fort William Canadiens in the other semi-final.

The Flin Flon-Winnipeg series opens Monday in Flin Flon, the town which produced a Memorial Cup winner as recently as the 1956-57 season.

Bombers flaunted their scoring depth in the Oil Kings series, winning 6-3 and 8-3 in Flin Flon and 10-1 in the third game played in Edmonton.

Cliff Pennington, Saskatchewan Junior Hockey League scoring leader this season and Flin Flon captain, pumped four goals in the final game.

Red Berenson, a top goal-getter in the world hockey tournament this year, collected six in the first two games of the series.

Patsy Plavich, captain of the Regina Pats playing card, is one of three Flin Flon recruits from the (SHL).

Bombers Sign Speedy Lewis

WINNIPEG (CP) — Winnipeg Blue Bombers today announced that All-Star halfback Leo Lewis has agreed to terms and signed for the 1959 Western Interprovincial Football Union season.

Lewis, considered one of the shiftest and fastest runners in the west, scored 11 touchdowns last season to rank fourth in the WIFU individual scoring. He also had the best average rushing record of 6.96 yards a carry and the best average runback of kickoffs at 31.9 yards. He finished third behind Edmonton's Johnny Bright and Saskatchewan's Cookie Gilchrist in total yards rushing.

Also a top pass receiver, Lewis caught 31 of 34 thrown his way for 679 yards. His average pass of 21.9 yards was a season record for the WIFU.

Winnipeg May Forget About Pee Wee Meet

GODERICH, Ont. (CP) — This may be the last year that Winnipeg Mustangs enter Goderich Lions Pee Wee Hockey Tournament competition.

"Next year I think I'll take the kids on a Cook's tour of small towns in Manitoba during Easter week and then come to Goderich for the final game of the tournament—an East-West challenge contest," coach Vince Leah said Friday as he surveyed the wreckage of his badly beaten team.

"It's useless for us to try to compete against these hand-picked teams," he added referring to his team's successful adversaries—Quebec Duncans, who took the Mustangs 13-0, and Sudbury playgrounders who scored 11 goals to Winnipeg's 1.

Leah said: "I'm not disappointed about losing because we didn't figure to go far anyway, but I have a terrible job trying to explain to the people back home why we get beaten by such big teams."

He had no complaints about the system prevailing in the Goderich tournament, but he did chastigate Winnipeg parks department and Winnipeg Minor Hockey Association for not taking a greater interest in Young Canada Week.

The Tigers beat Cincinnati Reds 10-5 in Tampa, Fla., Friday. They got 17 hits, only one home run. Rocky Bridges, acquired from Washington Senators during the winter, connected. Cincinnati had two homers — by Garry Lynch and Frank Thomas.

In other games, Pittsburgh Pirates defeated Kansas City Athletics 6-1, the Yankees shut out Los Angeles Dodgers 1-0, San Francisco Giants edged Cleveland Indians 6-4, St. Louis Cardinals beat Chicago White Sox 2-1, Milwaukee Braves beat the Senators 4-3 and Philadelphia Phillies overpowered Baltimore Orioles 7-2.

MONTREAL (CP) — Barbara Macdonald of Quebec City YWCA Friday night won two of the three events leading to the Canadian synchronized swimming championship and put herself in line as solid favorite to take the title.

She was followed by two other Quebec City girls.

She then swept through the solo competition with 80.8 points.

The meet continues today with the strokes competition, the third section of the Canadian championship.

Saskatoon Dethrones Vancouver Hoopsters

CALGARY (CP) — Saskatoon Aces have done what no other team could do during the last nine years: Take the Canadian Women's Basketball Championship away from Vancouver Eliters.

The Aces did it Friday night with an inspiring last-half surge that took them to a 55-49 victory over the Eliters, champions for nine years and favorites to re-

It was an uphill struggle all the way for the scrappy Aces, who at times were down 15 points. They rallied strongly in the second half and finally pulled it out of the fire when they tied it up and went ahead 45-46 with four minutes remaining.

In an early game Friday which over the Eliters, champions for nine years and favorites to re-ship, Calgary Maxwells defeated Toronto Teamsters 56-51 in overtime. Both clubs had been eliminated in the semi-finals.

START LIKE CHAMPS
Vancouver started like champions and jumped into a 6-0 lead in the first minute. They extended it to 37-28 at half time, leaving the impression they could add to it at will.

Saskatoon steadied down in the second half, began to work the ball and wait for an opening. Drawing out the Vancouver defence, they dropped passes to Pat Lawson and Leona Fior under the basket. Judy Holt, their top performer through the tournament, handled the outside shooting, scoring 19 to lead the Saskatoon attack.

Forcing the play during the last three minutes, the Aces took advantage of Vancouver defensive lapses and over-eagerness to move further in front and win going away.

Three Vancouver first-stringers—guards Nora McDermott and Shirley Topley and forward Joan Lorenz, fouled out at critical points in the final quarter and the Vancouver bench was not up to holding off the Saskatoon drive.

Heather Walker, picked up for the series from the University of British Columbia, was the key to the Eliters' offence and a large part of their defence. She netted 20 points, mostly on pivot and jump shots from the foul line, and handled a good portion of their rebounding.

ZOE SUNK 20
Zoe Shepherd, a veteran with the Eliters, had her best game of the tournament, also scoring 20 points.

Fior, who played in Pasadena, Calif., last year notched 16 points, eight of them on foul shots. Lawson added nine from her bucket position.

The Aces will form the nucleus of Canada's entry in the Pan-American games next summer. Several other players, the choices to be announced later, will be added.

SPORTS DIGEST

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Former welterweight boxing champion Johnny Saxton tried to hang himself today in the city jail where he is being held for burglary, police reported.

The 28-year-old Negro boxer used his socks for a rope, Sgt. William Dunbar said.

Saxton was cut down by a jail guard and taken to Atlantic City hospital. He was later returned to the jail, apparently unhurt.

Saxton, twice the welterweight champion of the world, was accused of robbing a store early today. Police captured him at gunpoint on the roof of the building.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Florida's version of Derby Day was expected to attract 25,000 racing fans to Gulfstream Park today for the eighth running of the 14-mile $100,000-added feature.

Nine three-year-olds will go postward with James D. Norris's Easy Spur the favorite over such runners as Bayard Sharp's Troilus, Brookmeade Stable's Sword Dancer, Ada L. Rice's Rare Rice and five others.

FORT ERIE, Ont. (CP) — The Canadian racing season opens today at this Niagara Peninsula track under weather conditions far from auspicious.

Racing will continue here until May 2 when it switches to Toronto. The season ends Nov. 18.

DEFENCEMEN TIRED
"A couple of my defencemen are tired. Guy Talbot has been seeing a lot of ice and I thought he showed signs of tiredness in the game in Montreal. Tom Johnson also is tired."

Tired or not, Canadiens took that game 4-2 Thursday night and grabbed a 3-2 lead in the best-of-seven semi-final. If a seventh and deciding game is necessary after tonight it will be played in Montreal Tuesday.

"We need fresh men against the Black Hawks, especially in this city where the crowd seems to give them a lift," said Blake, trying for his fourth Stanley Cup in as many years of coaching.

Meanwhile, Rudy Pilous, the Hawks' affable coach, said defencemen Jack Evans will probably play tonight. He missed the last period of Thursday's game because of a bruised hip.

FRIDAY'S FIGHTS
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Washington, D.C. — Charley Scott, 148, Philadelphia, stopped Isaac Logan, 145½, Camaguey, Cuba, 3.

In the fiscal year ended June 30, 1958, Australian goods worth $425,250,000 were sold in Asian countries.

"We had to let John go," said Wolves' president Ted Hill. "He seemed to be trying to make up the team with too many veterans and it just didn't pan out."

O'Flaherty, a Toronto native who started his coaching career in 1950 with Toronto St. Michael's Juniors and the senior Monarchs, was believed to be the highest paid coach in senior hockey at $200 a week.

He was rehired twice before by the Wolves after his replacements, Grant Warwick and Vic Lynn, were released. O'Flaherty held a two-year contract but it contained a clause that he could be released at any time.

"We have a few lions in the fire but nothing definite yet," said Hill regarding a new coach. Ex-Leaf coach Billy Reay and Wolves' forward Sam Benu have been mentioned as possibilities.

YOUR HOROSCOPE

By STRELLITA

FOR TOMORROW
Sunday's horoscope promises a pleasant, enjoyable day. Especially favored: family get-togethers, social functions, entertainment along musical lines and romance; also outdoor activities.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY

If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that, while certain periods—notably in June, July, October and December, will be propitious where matters of the pocketbook are concerned, you cannot expect any dramatic upturn along these lines during 1959. You can gain, however, by mapping out a conservative program (preferably before this week is over), by avoiding extravagance and speculation, and planning a solid foundation for the future. By following such a course, year's end should find your affairs on a generally stable basis.

Use good judgement in personal matters, too. Try to curb that innate aggressiveness of yours so that you do not precipitate crises in either business or family circles. Be especially careful in September and November. For the single, June will be an excellent period for marriage and, for all, late July and August will be stimulating for travel. Keep these months in mind when you are planning for your vacation. They are your best choice.

THE DAY AFTER TOMORROW

Monday's aspects will be highly restrictive—especially during the morning hours. Avoid friction, then, and be cautious in all dealings. In the late afternoon and early evening, the outlook brightens and you can make plans for going full speed ahead on Tuesday.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY

If Monday is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that, while your opportunities may be too obvious during the next year if you keep looking for them and making use of those you ferret out, you may be surprised, in a matter of only nine or ten months, how well you will have fared. This does not mean that there will be a dramatic change in your status. But it does mean that a sound and conservative policy where both job and financial matters are concerned, will prove worthwhile in long-term results. Be especially alert to advantages during June, July, October and December.

Do not expect a highly stimulating personal life, either. Except for mid-June, when romance and marriage are under lucky stars, and in July and August, when travel is favored, you may find your personal activities fairly routine until December, when a new trend begins. 1960 starts off on a bright note in all spheres of your life. A child born on this day will be endowed with lofty ambitions and self-confidence but may try to override others on his way "to the top."

FIRE PROTECTION

Ontario's forest fire lookout system has a total of 329 steel towers, some as high as 100 feet, at strategic spots.

BIG BEN'S CENTENARY

Low Blood Pressure
Not Always Serious

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.
You have heard a great deal about hypertension (high blood pressure). Now let's discuss hypotension (low blood pressure), the opposite complaint.

Each of us has an average normal blood pressure, depending upon our age, sex, weight, constitution and ordinary activities.

Against the heart lead by Avarelli, Harmon had no trouble making eleven tricks for a 690-point score. He lost a heart and a diamond.

The American team gained 900 points on the deal—seven international match points. It was the largest single gain registered by the United States team during the entire 156-board match against Italy.

Blood pressure below this average occurs in perfectly healthy persons. Women, it seems, are more likely to develop it than men.

NOT SERIOUS

If there are no other symptoms, present, low blood pressure is not necessarily serious. In fact, many doctors say that, all things being equal, a person past middle age, who has low blood pressure, generally can look forward to more years of life than can a person of similar age who has high blood pressure as a problem.

The main thing is to recognize the fact that you have low blood pressure, consult your doctor and then follow his advice to the letter.

TRouble AHEAD

However, when he overdoes something—tries to play golf too much, dances too strenuously, works too hard—he will have trouble.

He might feel dizzy, become apprehensive, experience a numbing sensation in his hands and feet. He may also complain of neuralgia-like pains throughout his body.

REST IN ORDER

This type of person is apt to be tired when he arises in the morning. As the day progresses, he gains physical momentum.

Generally, a rest or an adjustment that balances work and play more equally will return the blood pressure to normal level.

Low blood pressure should be watched and treated, where necessary, by a physician. If no serious factors are involved, it is merely a matter of understanding the condition and learning that you must not overdo things.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

L. J.: I have prostate gland trouble and am afraid of an operation. Please advise me if this would be dangerous?

Answer: In prostatic conditions, the disease, if uncontrolled, is much more dangerous than the operation might be.

Forrest Sees
Unjust Action

VANCOUVER (CP) — Al Forrest, suspended editor of the University of British Columbia student newspaper Ubyeser, says it would be "a miscarriage of justice" if the students responsible for an objectionable edition of the paper last week are expelled from the university.
